AGP Grain Marketing, LLC Completes the Sale of Its Texas and New Mexico Operations to Heartland Co-op

Omaha, NE (January 2, 2020) – AGP Grain Marketing, LLC, a subsidiary of Ag Processing Inc a cooperative (AGP), announced today that it has completed the sale of its grain and processed corn business unit in Texas and New Mexico to Heartland Co-op (Heartland).

AGP's CEO Keith Spackler stated "The Texas and New Mexico locations have been a part of AGP's grain operations since 2002. We are pleased to see the facilities remain in the cooperative system and are confident that Heartland will continue to provide high-quality feed and value-added service for dairy, livestock, and grain customers in the region."

AGP (www.agp.com) is a leading agribusiness with primary operations as a major U.S. soybean processor/refiner producing and marketing soybean meal, refined soybean oil, and biodiesel. AGP businesses also include agricultural product trading in domestic and international markets and numerous U.S. grain elevator operations. AGP is owned by local and regional cooperatives representing farmer-producers across the United States. Corporate headquarters are located in Omaha, Nebraska.
